

HOPE HOUSE

BED & BREAKFAST

- Spacious en-suite rooms
- Parking
- Set in tranquil countryside
- Spectacular sea views
- A minute's walk away from Mevagissey village

A warm welcome awaits you at Hope House. Enjoying a prime site in magical Mevagissey, the large, non-smoking, double, twin and family rooms have sea and woodland views with en-suite, TV and drinks-making facilities.

A hearty breakfast is served in the dining room and conservatory and guests may also enjoy the lounge, garden and patio.

Situated by the coastal path, eight miles from Eden and one mile from the Lost Gardens of Heligan, Hope House is the perfect base for exploring Cornwall's many attractions and is just moments away from Mevagissey's fine restaurants, bars, galleries and shops.

Rates from £22.50 per person per night.

DIRECTIONS

As you drive into the village, follow the one-way system to the mini market. Turn right along a narrow road into Fore Street (looking out for the chemist on the right). Turn sharp right (in front of Lloyds TSB), up Tregoney Hill. As the road bends to the right, continue straight on (a narrow private road). Hope House is on the left.

8 miles from the Eden Project!
